Editor's Voice

Dear parents and students,

The current school year has just flown by. Looking back, it has been rewarding teaching students who are willing to learn and working alongside such friendly and caring teachers and supporting staff.

P1 students have been busy again this year with our shared reading programme. With each shared reading unit, students are taken through listening, reading aloud, and the re-telling of a story. Then, songs, games and activities are used to draw together the language features from each story (eg. phonics, sight words, vocabulary, grammar).

P2-6 have again had a good year with our guided reading programme as have P4-6 with the KIP programme. Both these programmes give students exposure to different text types, e.g. narrative (story), 'How-to', 'What I did', plays and informational styles. The aim here is to show students that reading and writing can be both interesting and informative.

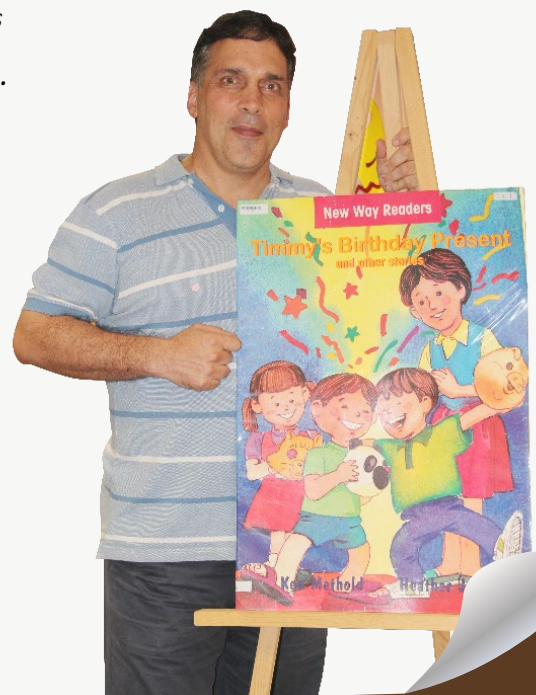

At this year's English Camp, the English Ambassadors learned about fairytales. In groups they each prepared a fairytale drama production. On the last day, the parents got to enjoy the various performances. It was a great show and it was good to see that the wet weather did not dampen the spirits of the students.

With the school's 30th Anniversary fast approaching, this year's newsletter has one eye on the past and one eye firmly on the future.

Inside you will read students' 'Letters to the Principal' and poems where students reflect on their primary school years at LCCS as they transition to secondary school.

Now sit back and enjoy the pieces of writing. I know you will. I look forward to the 2016-17 school year and the challenges and rewards that it will bring.

I had a wonderful day today. Today is my birthday and I went to Hong Kong Heritage Museum. I went there to see exhibitions with my family. I wanted to have an unforgettable experience.

In the afternoon, we arrived at the museum. We saw a lot of exhibits there. When we were watching the exhibits, the staff took out a cake for me and everybody sang a birthday song to me. I was so surprised!

In the evening, we went to Perfect Hotel to have a buffet dinner. There was a lot of food, drinks and desserts, such as prawn salad, crab curry, juice, cola, mango pancakes and ice-cream. They were all very yummy!

I felt so happy because I had a wonderful birthday today. I will never forget this great moment.

In the afternoon, I went snorkeling with Mum and my brother Jason. It was exciting. After snorkeling, we went back to Grandma's house. My cousin Jenny and I played with the puppies in the garden. The puppies were so cute.

In the evening, my whole family went to the beach to have a barbecue. We went shopping and bought a lot of things.

I felt very happy about this trip to the Philippines because I had so much fun with my family. I want to go there again!

In the morning, I ate a sandwich for my breakfast with Mum because I was hungry. But the food was yuck. I did not like the sandwich. However there wasn't anything besides the sandwich so I ate the whole sandwich up.

At recess, I was bored so I played games with my friends in the playground. But I hurt my right leg. I was sad so I cried. My leg was bleeding. My classmate John took me to the sick room for medical care.

After school, I did homework at home. Today our teachers gave us a lot of homework so I had to spend a lot of time to finish it. I felt tired. After finishing my homework, it was already 11 o'clock. I did not have time to watch my favourite cartoon tonight.

I had a bad day today. I felt so exhausted. I'm going to go to bed soon. I want to have a good and happy day tomorrow.

Today was the most terrible day of my life! I quarreled with my older sister today. In the afternoon, I shared my unhappy things with my sister but she said frustratingly, 'Shut up and go away!' Then she continued to say something bad on her phone. I felt so angry and said, 'You are a bad sister! Bad sister!' Then my sister scolded me. I scolded her and she immediately said, 'I don't want to hear anything from you!' I was very angry. I shouted at her.

She cried! Then my mum talked to me but I didn't want to talk to my sister. After that my sister suddenly said, 'Do you want to watch TV?' Although I remembered she did not say sorry. I wanted to watch TV with my sister, so I forgot every unhappy experience.

A Letter to Your Pen Friend

Dear Lisa,

How are you? I am writing this letter because I want to suggest what you can try doing during the summer holiday.

You can try learning a new language. Why is learning a new language a good hobby? Firstly, you can talk with the foreigners when you visit other countries. Secondly, you can get a job more easily because many bosses like staff who are good at English. Finally you can exchange cultures easily because many people talk in English.

I hope you can enjoy your new hobby. If you have other questions about hobbies, you can write a letter to me.

Yours,
Alan

A Letter to Your Pen Friend

Dear Lisa,

How are you?

I know you want to start a new hobby during the summer holiday. I want to suggest what you can try to do.

I think you can learn swimming because it is not only a relaxing activity, it also has a lot of health benefits. Swimming is a good, whole body exercise. It can build up our muscle strength, so we will be strong. Swimming burns calories and helps us to get rid of excess body fat and weight so we can keep fit. Regular swimming is also good for our heart.

I hope you like my suggestions. Please write soon.

Yours,
Alan

A Missing Present

Last Saturday, Mum and Dad gave a toy car to Alan as a present for Children's Day. He was delighted so he shouted, 'I love you, Mum and Dad! I like the toy car. I will play with it happily and take good care of it.'

Then Alan called his friend Kevin to play with him in the park. First they played rock-paper-scissors. Then they played with his toy car. Kevin said, 'I like this toy car. Where can I buy it?' Alan said, 'I don't know because my father gave me this toy car.' Alan said, 'It's time for dinner. Let's go home. Bye!'

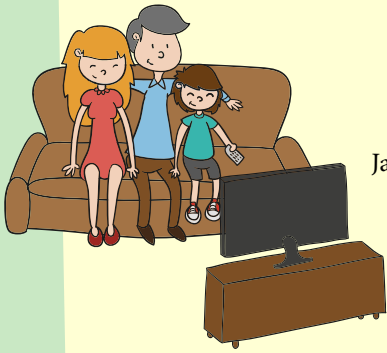

When Alan went home, he found that he left his toy car in the park. He wanted to go back to the park and find it but his father did not allow him to go because it was too late. So he had to find it the next day. He felt worried because he was afraid of losing his toy car so he couldn't sleep that night.

The next day, Alan went to the park with his Dad but they could not find Alan's toy car. After they went home, Alan called his friend Kevin and asked him, 'Did you see my toy car?' Kevin said, 'Yes, I found your toy car. Then I took it home. I will return it to you later.' Alan said, 'Thank you, Kevin. See you next time. Bye.'

Then we saw some kids playing football joyfully next to the zebra crossing. When Bobo saw the football, he got excited. He wanted to play football too.

Suddenly the ball rolled along the zebra crossing. Bobo ran across the zebra crossing to catch the ball but there was a car coming towards Bobo. I shouted immediately, 'Come back, Bobo!' ### Two Good Neighbours

Joan and Alvin were neighbours but they did not get on well. Joan is 12 years old. She is a hard-working girl. Alvin is 10 years old. He is a naughty boy. They live on the same floor. One day in the library, when Joan was doing her homework, Alvin suddenly played tricks on her. He took out a toy fly and scared Joan. Joan felt frightened and she screamed. Alvin laughed loudly, 'Ha! Ha! You are as timid as a mouse.' Then he kept laughing at her.

On another day, Joan met Alvin in the street. When Joan was walking, she didn't notice a banana skin in the street. Joan stepped on it and fell down. Her knee was hurt badly. However when Alvin saw her, he teased her, 'What a lucky day you've had today!' Joan felt very embarrassed and angry. Also she felt a lot of pain. Luckily, her best friend Sandy walked past and helped her get back home.

The next day, when Joan was walking in the park, Alvin was playing football in the playground. Suddenly a big brown dog barked at Alvin. It was as fierce as a tiger. Alvin was scared. His face turned purple and he nearly cried.

Joan thought, 'Should I help him or walk away?' Joan didn't leave Alvin alone and she was brave. She helped Alvin escape from the danger. Alvin thanked Joan and apologized to her, 'Sorry, I should not play tricks on you.' Joan said, 'Never mind! We can be good friends.' Then they chatted and went home on foot together. They felt happy and always helped each other from that day on.

My Dream Job

When I grow up, I want to be an actor. I first learnt about an actor's life from a TV programme. I think acting is challenging.

I want to be an actor because I like doing drama. I want to perform in a play with many people.

Actors need to be outgoing because they need to work with other actors or actresses. They need to be good-looking because people watch the dramas on TV. They also need to be attentive because they need to work with people face to face.

I am going to watch more dramas so that I can learn how to be the best actor. I am going to meet more new friends because I need to be outgoing.

I think this job is suitable for me because I am good-looking, outgoing and attentive. I hope I can be an actor when I grow up.

My Opinions on Transport in Hong Kong

There are different kinds of transport in Hong Kong. Among them, I like the MTR but I don't like buses. I like the MTR because of several reasons. First, it is fast because it takes 30 minutes to travel from Tuen Mun to Hung Hom. Next, it is comfortable because they're cool inside when it's hot in the street. Finally, although the queue is long, it only costs $2 to travel from Tuen Mun to Town Centre.

I don't like buses because of several reasons. First, it is crowded because there are many people travelling by bus in the morning. Next, it is slow because it takes an hour to travel from Tuen Mun to Tung Chung. Finally, the queue is always long because there are a lot of passengers waiting for the bus.

I think the MTR is the best transport and buses are the worst transport in Hong Kong.

A Beautiful Memory

I was born in Hong Kong--- a nice city.
I had a dream to experience snowy scenery.
In my last vacation, Grandpa took a trip to Beijing with Jacky and me.

The next morning, it was snowy.
Watching snow spreading over the ground,
I was surprised and very happy.
I immediately ran out of the hotel with Jacky.
Made a big snowball quickly.

A snow war started between Jacky and me.
We played for a long time happily.
We stopped the fight when we became dirty.
Now it is still my beautiful memory.
And my dream had come true exactly.

1. Once upon a time, an old man and an old woman were sitting in the kitchen. The old woman said, 'I'm hungry. Let's make some gingerbread.' 'Oh! That's a good idea! I'm hungry too,' said the old man.

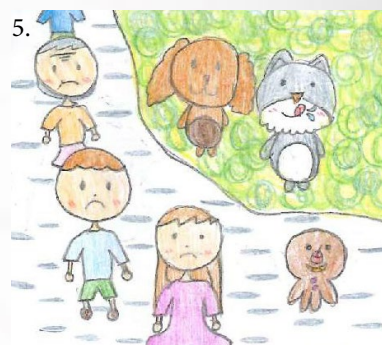

2. The old woman rolled out the dough and cut it into the shape of a big gingerbread man. The old man put some raisins, cherries and orange rind for his eyes, nose, mouth and buttons. Then, they put the gingerbread man into the oven.

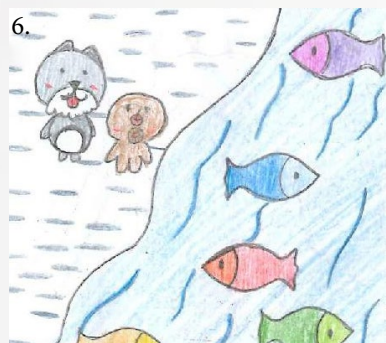

3. A while later, when the old man took out the gingerbread man from the oven, the gingerbread man could speak and walk! They couldn't believe it! The old man cried, 'Mr. Gingerbread Man, don't run! I want to eat you!' 'Me too!' shouted the old woman so they chased the gingerbread man.

4. The old man and the old woman ran out of the house and down the road after the gingerbread man but they couldn't catch him. Soon, they ran past a boy and a girl. The girl called, 'Yum! Mr Gingerbread Man, can you stop, please? I want to eat you!' 'Me too!' cried the boy.

5. Later, they ran past a cat and a dog. The dog barked, 'Mr Gingerbread Man, can you stop, please? I want to eat you!' 'Me too!' meowed the cat. But the gingerbread man ran faster and faster.

6. Then, the gingerbread man and the crowd came to a stream. The gingerbread man was shocked to see it. The cat meowed, 'Mr. Gingerbread Man, I'm going to eat you! Ha...!'

7. All of a sudden, someone came out of nowhere and cried for Super Gingerbread Man to help the gingerbread man. Super Gingerbread Man said, 'Little boy, I'll help you. You can hold my hand and I will let you fly in the sky. Then, the gingerbread man held Super Gingerbread Man's hands and flew into the sky.'

8. Oh! They flew to Gingerbread World. There were so many gingerbread men living there. The gingerbread man was safe in Gingerbread World. Finally, Super Gingerbread Man and the gingerbread man lived in Gingerbread World together happily ever after.

When Barney Bit Joey's Tail

5A Chang Cho Yiu, Phoebe

When Barney went home from the vet, he saw a tail hanging down from the wall. When Barney bit the tail, Joey jumped over the wall. When Joey jumped over the wall, Barney chased after Joey. When they jumped over the wall, they were in a spaceship.

They saw a lot of horrible monsters. A monster was doing homework. When the monster found Joey and Barney, it wanted to eat them.

Barney and Joey ran away but the horrible monster ate them. In the tummy of the monster, Barney and Joey cried, 'Oh no! Somebody please help us!' Suddenly, an angel appeared behind them.

When Joey and Barney saw the angel, they yelled, 'Angel, please help us!' 'Sorry! I can't help you. If you did not jump over the wall, you would not have died.' Unexpectedly, the angel disappeared. They were ashamed. They cried loudly.

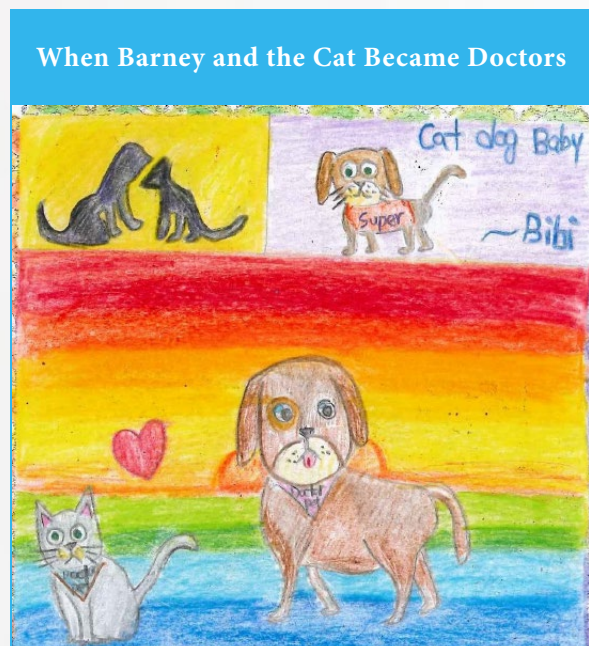

After they died, Barney saw his master in heaven. He barked loudly but his master could not hear him. The master regretted, 'If I had given Barney a leash, maybe I could find him.' They were touched. Barney and Joey became the master's guardian angels from then on.

When Barney and the Cat Became Doctors

5A Tso Chin Yu, Edith

Their masters brought them into a room. When Barney and the cat Betty had finished a test, they came out from the room. The boss of the doctor pets gave them a badge, it meant they passed the test. This meant they could be doctor pets, they were excited and happy. 'Yeah!' they yelled at the same time. Then Barney played with Betty because he wanted to be friends with her.

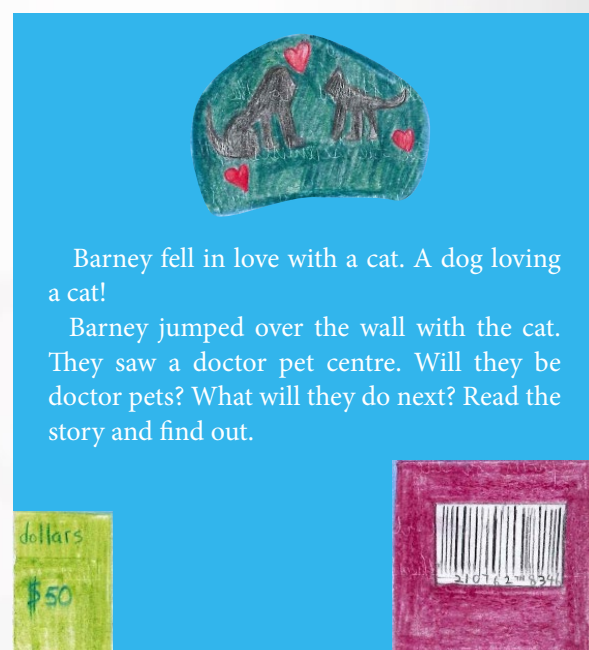

One day, when they played in a factory area, they were unfortunately caught by some scientists to do experiments. The scientists wanted to genetically modify them. The scientists mixed their genes and bred a new cat dog baby successfully. When the media knew this, they all rushed to the laboratory quickly and interviewed the scientists. Betty and Barney became famous and became hit faces on the internet. Barney's masters were overjoyed at that unexpected good news. They lived with their lovely son happily since then.

When Barney went home from the vet, he saw a tail hanging down from the wall. When Barney played with the tail, the lazy cat jumped over the wall angrily and Barney chased after the cat. When they jumped over the wall, they entered a doctor pet centre. They wanted to fight with each other again but they saw some other animals looking at them strangely. When they wanted to play with other animals, their masters smiled at them.

Betty and Barney formally became doctor pets. They were trained in the centre for three months and also visited a hospital. When Barney and Betty went to a hospital, they brought happiness to the patients so the patients loved them very much. They worked together and soon became partners. Although they were different animals, they became friends and always hugged each other.

My Unusual Pet

I have always wanted to have an unusual pet. Now I would like to have a huge snake because it can be very helpful. But I need to spend so much money.

It is green and black. It is as huge as a door and as green as a forest. I like it very much. It likes to eat meat and poisonous things. It also likes to drink a lot of blood.

Sometimes, it sleeps on my bed. But sometimes, it also sleeps on the floor. Most of the time it sleeps at the front door. It feels so comfortable.

It likes to help me catch thieves. When the thieves are caught, my snake will eat their meat and drink their blood. It plays table tennis with me too. It is scary but interesting.

Five Senses Poem--Love

Love looks like a butterfly.
It sounds like a singing bird.
It tastes like jelly.
It smells like a lily
and it feels like a pillow.

Five Senses Poem--Peace

Peace is a good friend who doesn't fight.
It smells like perfume
and it tastes like donuts.
Peace sounds like a cheerful song and feels like the sun.

The One I Love

My brother is Gary.
He never gets angry.
I play football with him at weekends.
He always wins in the end.
He teaches me homework clearly.
So I talk to him politely.
He has a good mind
and he is always kind.
