Editor's Voice

Dear parents and students,

It's been another great year that has just flown by. Throughout the year I have been impressed with the willingness of students to improve their English skills and to keep fuelling this interest we need to continually challenge ourselves. Students continue to learn English through the use of different strategies: Firstly, by reading aloud as a whole class, in small groups and individually. This strategy can play an important role in developing reading fluency and speaking confidence. Secondly, through the asking and answering of questions and thirdly, with the use of games, songs, chants and rhymes. These last two strategies set a good foundation for the everyday use of English. Remember, all of these strategies can be used by parents at home.

Technology is also another component that we are continually integrating into English lessons. From interactive whiteboards to ipads, technology has an important role to play. The touch screen nature of devices gives immediate feedback and can be very engaging if students are matched to tasks at their level.

Of course this year was a very special one, with the schools 30th Anniversary. It was pleasing to see our schools history celebrated in such spectacular fashion. The fact that some of the performances were conducted in English, I think reflects Hong Kong's cosmopolitan character.

We now look forward to the next year that lies ahead. Rest assured that it will be another action packed one.

Subject: An Unforgettable Experience

Hi Tom,
You wouldn't believe what happened to me yesterday. Yesterday, I went to the supermarket after school. When I was buying potato chips, I saw a lady who was choosing Vitamin C. Her trolley was full of goods. After a while, she talked on her mobile phone loudly and she put a box of Vitamin C into my paper bag. However, I didn't notice.
After I paid at the cashier, I wanted to leave the supermarket. Suddenly, the alarm rang. The staff said, 'Stop!' I felt shocked.
The lady saw her trolley and she didn't see the Vitamin C she had chosen. She said, 'It is mine. Sorry!' 'Never mind,' I said. It was an unforgettable experience!

Dear Lisa,

How are you? Summer holiday is coming. I know you want to start a new hobby during the holiday. I am writing to suggest what you can try doing. Then you can have a great time.

As I know, you like music very much. You can play the piano in the music centre which is near your home. The music teacher, Ms Tsang, is my mother's friend. She will give you a discount if you join her class. Playing the piano has many benefits. You can kill time. You can also perform in a show.

How about cooking? I know you want to be a famous chef when you grow up. My dad can teach you to cook. He is a five-star hotel chef. You don't need to pay any money to him. Cooking is a survival skill so I started to learn cooking. When your parents are sick, you can cook for them and they will be happy.

I hope you will like my suggestions. Can you tell me about your school life? Please write soon.

Best wishes,
Chloe

Hi Jane,

I'd like to tell you what happened to me tonight.

Tonight, my 5-year-old sister, Lisa, my dad and I went out for dinner. After dinner, Lisa and I went to Wonderful Toy Shop to buy some toys to celebrate the end of the exam. There were plenty of amusing toys on the shelves, such as dolls, puzzles and pens. I chose the puzzle which had a sailboat on it. However, Lisa chose nothing. She likes toys very much. It was very strange.

When we paid for the puzzle, the cashier discovered that Lisa had hidden a pen which had a panda on it in her small pocket. Dad and I were shocked because Lisa is an honest and obedient girl. She never steals things. I was worried and nervous because Lisa broke the law and she might have to go to prison!

I apologized to the cashier immediately, 'Sorry, cashier. My sister, Lisa didn't do it on purpose. She just wants to have fun. Can you forgive her?' Lisa said sorry too. We hoped the cashier would give us a chance. Fortunately, the kind cashier didn't call the police and forgave Lisa. Then, we paid for the pen. Finally, Lisa promised that she would not steal things again. We all forgave her. After this incident, I felt disappointed in her. I need to pay more attention to her! Have you had any similar experiences? I am looking forward to your reply!

Cheers,
Kelly

Dear Ben,

How are you? I am so happy to see your letter. Let me tell you something about Hong Kong.

In Hong Kong, the weather is hot and sunny in summer but it is cold, dry and sometimes windy in winter. At weekends, I usually go to watch a film, go shopping and do my homework. I am good at badminton, skipping and cycling. I have joined three different activities at school. First, I joined the Art Club. It is on Thursdays. I learn how to draw beautiful pictures. I also joined the Gardening Club. It is every Monday. I learn how to plant and the properties of different soils. Finally I joined English Drama. It is every Friday. I learn how to co-operate with my team mates and it can improve my English.

I live in Tuen Mun. I have one younger brother and one elder sister. They take care of me. I want to be a teacher when I grow up because I like children very much and I like to teach other people. My favourite subjects are Chinese and English. It was because I am interested in words and I like to speak English. My favourite food is chocolate because it can make me happy.

Can you tell me something about your birthday, your family and your favorite food? Finally, I hope you can write to me soon. See you later!

The Gingerbread Man

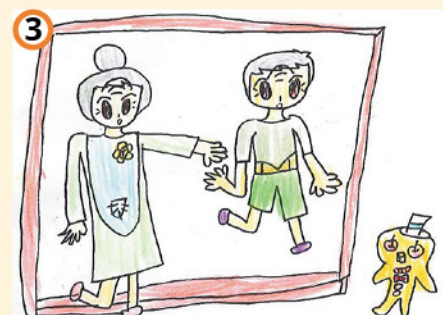

4D Leung Hei Laam, Hebe

A long time ago, an old woman and an old man were hungry. The old woman said, 'Let's make a gingerbread man.' The old man replied, 'Good idea!'

So they started to make the gingerbread. First, they cut out a gingerbread man. Then they put a chocolate for his nose, some cherries for his eyes and an orange rind for his mouth. After that, they put it into the oven.

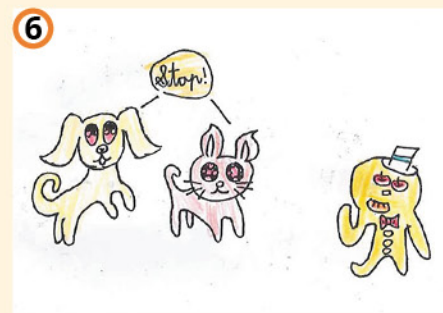

After thirty minutes, the old woman opened the door of the oven, the gingerbread man ran away! 'Wait!' said the woman and the man.

'Stop!' the woman said. 'We're hungry!' the man said. But the gingerbread man ran so fast. He said, 'Run, run as fast as you can. You can't catch me! I'm the gingerbread man!'

Then they ran past a tree. A boy and a girl were there. 'Stop! Stop!' they shouted. 'Run, run, as fast as you can. You can't catch me! I'm the gingerbread man!' the gingerbread man said.

They ran and ran, they ran past a dog and a cat through the town. 'Stop! Stop!' meowed the cat. 'Run, run, as fast as you can! You can't catch me. I'm the gingerbread man!' said the gingerbread man. So the cat and the dog ran together.

The gingerbread man went near the river. At that time, a fat pig came out and said, 'Let me help you!' 'OK!' said the gingerbread man.

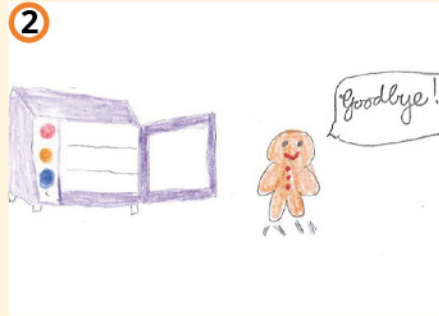

The pig and the gingerbread man swam across the river. Suddenly, the pig threw the gingerbread man high up in the air and he ate him! 'Yum!' said the pig.

Once upon a time, an old man and an old woman lived in a small village. They wanted to have some snacks for their tea time because they were hungry.

The old woman baked a gingerbread man. When the old woman opened the oven, the gingerbread man jumped out of the oven and ran away.

The old man and the old woman were very scared. Then they ran after the gingerbread man. But the gingerbread man ran very fast.

The gingerbread man shouted arrogantly, 'Run, run, as fast as you can. You can't catch me. I'm the gingerbread man.'

Then, a little boy and a little girl saw the gingerbread man. They were hungry too. So they chased the gingerbread man. But the gingerbread man ran very fast and they couldn't catch him.

The old man, the old woman, the little boy and the little girl ran after the gingerbread man. They were very tired because they had run for a long way. So they gave up and went home sadly. The gingerbread man was pleased.

Then, the gingerbread man went through a forest. He saw some people. They said, 'If you drink this magic soup, you can fly in the sky.' The gingerbread man said, 'I will drink it! Thank you!'

After the gingerbread man drank the magic soup, he could fly. But his body and hair became red. Then a bird saw and ate him. The bird was very happy and said, 'Tweet tweet! I am full! Yum!'

A Special Day

Today is Friday. Tom gets up at seven thirty. After that, he washes his face, brushes his teeth and has breakfast. Then he goes to school with his mum as usual. When they arrive, they cannot get into the school. Tom's mum says, 'Oh! Today is a school holiday! Let's go to the beach.' Then they swim in the sea and build sandcastles. Next they go to the library. Tom reads books there. Finally, they go to the park and play.

In the end, they are tired at night so they go to bed early.

Too Many Computer Games

On Sunday, Ben played computer games until three o'clock in the morning. He didn't pack up anything for school the next day, so his mum opened the door and said angrily, 'Stop playing computer games, Ben.' 'OK,' Ben answered cheekily and continued playing happily.

The next morning, Ben had an English test. His classmates worked very hard for the test but he slept comfortably during the test. His English teacher, Miss Wong discovered this and said, 'Wake up, Ben!' Ben woke up and felt awful. The day after the English test, he became even lazier than before. He played games even more seriously. He didn't tidy up his bedroom or have dinner. He still played computer games until three o'clock in the morning. Two weeks later, Miss Wong marked all the papers, so she gave them back. When Ben got his paper, Miss Wong felt disappointed and said, 'You have got an 'F' this time.' 'What a pity!' Ben felt disappointed too.

In the end, Ben's mum packed up all the computer games. His mother said, 'If you want to get back all the computer games, you should get all good results.' Ben studied very hard and got back all the computer games.

Too many computer games will make our results bad. Therefore we should adjust the time we spend playing computer games and do our revision.

At three o'clock, he finds Dad and Mum. He says, 'Mum, Dad, I don't know where my toy dragon is. Can you help me?' His mum says, 'Okay! Where did you go?' Tom says, 'I went to the park.' Mum goes to the park with Tom to find his toy dragon.

Finally they find it. Tom says, 'Sorry, Mum! I will be careful.' Tom feels happy.

A Visit to the Home for the Elderly

Last Saturday was warm and sunny. Miss Kwong led my classmates and I to the home for the elderly in Sheung Shui. We got there by school bus. After we got there, we met a lot of elderly people and some nurses. The elderly people were old but smart.

First, we gave some scarves and gloves to the elderly for presents so that they could keep warm. Then, we sang old songs and Chinese opera to them. They clapped their hands and gave us the thumbs up. They were happy. Next, we played a game called 'passing the ball with music'. The game was exciting and the elderly loved playing the game. After that, we had a mini tea party. We had delicious food such as chicken wings, sandwiches and fish balls. When we were eating the food, we listened to the elderly's old stories about Hong Kong. They were touched because they knew that somebody cared about them.

In this visit, I got valuable experience because I learnt that we should care and help the elderly. Also, I learnt how to communicate with others. I want to visit them again in the future because I want to make them feel warm, so that they will not feel lonely.

A Visit to the Home for the Elderly

Last Saturday, I went to the Home for the Elderly by bus. It was a long way. We met some old people there. I also met my friends.

All my friends and I prepared some presents for the elderly. I gave some jackets to them because they could keep them warm in winter. First, we sang some Christmas songs with actions. The elderly felt excited because we sang the songs with them. They clapped and sang with us. Next, we played some games with them like passing the ball, miming games, playing Chinese chess and guessing games. We felt delighted during the games.

I learnt that we need to bring happiness to the elderly, especially during festivals. They really need our care because their relatives can't visit them every day. I want to visit them again because it is meaningful.

A Birthday Surprise

It was Dr Chan's birthday last Saturday. His family wanted to give him a surprise birthday party. After Dr Chan went to his clinic, everybody started preparing for the party. Mrs Chan was baking a cake while Andy and Polly were making a birthday card and a banner.

Unfortunately, Polly cut her finger when she was folding the paper. 'Oh my finger!' Polly screamed. 'What's the matter?' Andy asked. He put a plaster on her wound.

Then, Mrs Chan was taking out the cake in the kitchen. But she was so careless that she burned her arm. She felt uncomfortable and worried. 'Oh dear!' Then Polly and Andy rushed to the kitchen and brought some cold water to their mother.

After that, Andy banged his head badly and got a big bump when he was hanging up the banner on the chair. He was so afraid that he put a bandage on his head.

Finally, Dr Chan came home and found they were all hurt so he sent them to hospital. Although they got home at mid-night, they had the birthday party. Dr Chan felt relieved because he was always with his family.

Yesterday was my birthday. In the morning, I went to ABC Cinema with my mum and dad. Mum said, 'You can watch either A Runners' Dream or The Robot War.' I chose The Robot War. It was exciting and I was amazed because the special effects were very good.

After the party, I unwrapped my presents, I was so excited. I had got some toys, a doll and a cap. I was overjoyed when I found a DVD and a cute teddy bear from my grandparents. I was so excited and surprised. I loved them very much.

At seven o'clock in the evening, we had a buffet dinner with my family and uncles. They gave me a red packet and a new dress. I gave them a big hug. I was so happy because I had a marvelous day with my friends and family.

SUNNY

What a bad day! This morning I had a quarrel with my friend, Yoyo. We were at home. She broke my toy. It was a doll. My mum bought it for me on my birthday. I was really mad so I shouted, 'Why did you do that?' She said, 'It's just a toy. You will get it back!' I was even more mad. I kicked her out of my room. I felt disappointed with her.

A few hours later, I called her and said, 'Let's meet at the park.' When we arrived at the park, she said sorry to me and bought back the toy that she broke. I felt sorry too so we hugged and went to play together in the park. At last we had fun and we forgave each other in the end.

Today, my sister and I were at home. We were very hungry. Suddenly, I saw a packet of potato chips. They looked very yummy. So I took them and wanted to eat them quickly. And then my older sister wanted to take my food too. She took my birthday party candies! My classmates gave me those candies. I was so angry! When she saw that I took her potato chips, she said, 'Why do you take my food? I really hate you! You are not my sister!' I was very mad so I said, 'I was so hungry at that time so I took your food, but you took my food too! And those candies are very important because they were given by my classmates! And you are not my sister from now!' So we quarrelled with each other. Then we didn't talk to each other. After ten minutes, my sister said to me, 'Sorry, Coco! I shouldn't take your food so I'll give you back the food now!' I was very excited too so I shared with her. At the end, we know each other are the most important. I hope we will never quarrel with each other again.

My opinion on transport in Hong Kong

There are different kinds of transport in Hong Kong. Among all of them, I like travelling by MTR but I don't like travelling by bus.

I think travelling by MTR is cheap. It costs only $2 to travel from Tuen Mun to Yuen Long. It is convenient too. I can pay by my Octopus card so I don't need to take many coins. Also, there are many MTR stations. We can go almost anywhere in Hong Kong by MTR. Besides, the MTR is very fast. It takes only 15 minutes to travel from Tuen Mun to Yuen Long. There is an MTR station near my home. It takes only 2 minutes to walk there.

On the other hand, I don't like travelling by bus because it is always crowded. There are always a lot of people and it is not easy to get a seat. Although buses are fast, they are noisy. The passengers always speak loudly on the bus. I think buses do not smell good. I always get sick when I take the bus.

I think the MTR is the best transport in Hong Kong and buses are the worst.

My Favourite Holiday Destination in Hong Kong

My favourite holiday destination in Hong Kong is Ocean Park. I have been there ten times or more. I like going to Ocean Park because I like the pandas and dolphins. I like the rides and souvenirs there too.

I last went to Ocean Park last summer holiday. I went there with my family. I played on the rides there. I also rode on the cable car, the dragon ride and the Crazy Gallon. They were all very exciting. I also watched the dolphin show. The dolphins were very cute and lovely. They were also very smart. I felt happy and excited.

My favourite activity is riding on the cable car because I can watch the beautiful views and take some wonderful photos. My favourite place is the aquarium because there are many colourful fish. I enjoy visiting Ocean Park very much. I want to go to Ocean Park again.

My favourite holiday destination in Hong Kong is Ocean Park. I have been there four times. I like going to Ocean Park because I can buy nice souvenirs, go on the rides and visit the interesting aquarium there. It is fun! I love looking at the jellyfish best because they are really beautiful.

I went to Ocean Park with my family by MTR two months ago. First, we rode on the roller coaster. It was very exciting! After that, we watched the dolphin show. The dolphins performed with the trainers. They were so smart! Then we went to see the pandas. The pandas were as big as lions. After the trip, we learnt to take care of nature and save the earth.

Ocean Park is my favourite holiday destination in Hong Kong. I want to go there more often.

My Dream Job

When I grow up, I want to be a lawyer. I have had this dream since I was in Primary 4. If I become a lawyer, I will help people in legal trouble with my knowledge. I will become famous and rich too.

Being a lawyer is challenging and interesting. This will give me a chance to represent my clients in a court of law in front of juries and judges. Surely, I will love this job as I like doing challenging things. I enjoy meeting different kinds of clients because I am outgoing. Also it is meaningful to uphold justice with legal knowledge.

To make my dream come true, I need to be confident so that I can persuade people to agree with me. I need to be diligent and intelligent as I have to remember all the laws by heart. I need to think critically so that I can look for evidence to help needy people.

Being a lawyer is not a difficult thing. I will try my best to accomplish my dream. I hope that I will become a great lawyer when I grow up! I am sure my dream will come true.

My Dream Job

"We are now going to take off. I wish you all a pleasant journey." Can you guess what my dream job is? Right, I want to be a pilot. I have had this dream since I was in Primary 3. I think it is such a challenging and meaningful job because pilots will face different challenges in the sky and they can fly people to different countries.

The feeling of flying in the sky is amazing. I enjoyed travelling by plane when I was small because the view was perfect. Therefore I decided to be a pilot! If I become a pilot, I will take passengers to their destination safely by plane. I like to travel around the world and learn different cultures.

However, it is quite demanding to become a pilot. First, pilots need to be careful. They have to guarantee passengers' safety and make some decisions in the sky firmly. It can't be wrong or else accidents will happen. Furthermore, they need to have a healthy body so that they can adapt to the time difference between each country and will not feel sick in the air. They need to be very hard-working too. So that they can handle a lot of tests and flying missions. They also need to keep learning about aviation. They are busy, of course! Besides that, pilots need to stay calm. They have to keep a clear mind all the time and be determined during accidents.

I want to make my dream come true so I need to take action. I will read more books to improve my language level so I can communicate with others at the control tower. I will also join some aviation projects and courses to learn more about aviation and planes.

In conclusion, although it is hard to be a pilot, I will work hard and hope my dream will come true one day.

A Fairy Tale

Once upon a time, there was an ugly witch who had a dragon. She asked, 'Who is the most beautiful woman in the world?' The dragon replied, 'The beautiful princess is the most beautiful woman in the world.' The witch began to get angry. 'Catch the princess and bring her to me!' said the witch crossly.

out from the back of the tree and said, 'Ha ha ha! Let me catch you!' The princess shouted, 'Help! Can any knights help me?' But no one answered. One hour later, the dragon and the princess arrived at the cave.

The witch felt very happy. She gave the dragon some meat and two bags of gold and silver. Then the witch said, 'Good job, Dragon! I will kill you, Princess. Then I will be the most beautiful woman!'

Then, they went back to town. 'I will buy a palace. How about you, Jimmy?' asked David. 'I haven't decided yet. Maybe I should buy a car and travel around the world,' replied Jimmy. All of the sudden, a mysterious woman stole their treasure. 'Stop! Stop! Don't run! Give back our treasure!' shouted Jimmy and David loudly. However, the woman had already gone. Finally, Jimmy and David lost their treasure and continued on to find the new treasure.

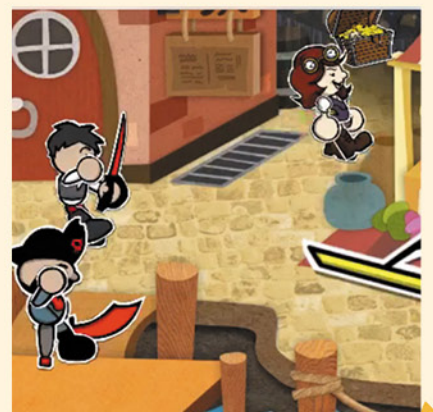

A long time ago, there were two pirates called Jimmy and David. They wanted to get the treasure on the island so they could become wealthy. However, the island was very dangerous because there were plenty of sharks protecting it. 'There were ghosts, zombies and vampires on the island too and many pirates on land and in the sea had died because of them,' reminded Jimmy.

'Let's go to that island! We can pour some blood into the sea to attract the sharks so that our ship won't be

When David and Jimmy opened the gate, they saw many awful things such as bat skeletons. 'Sh! There's an ugly ghost! We need to get the treasure secretly, otherwise the ghost will find us!' said David. Unluckily, the ghost found them and fought with them. David and Jimmy used a sword and killed the ghost. 'Yeah! We win! We can get the treasure now! We will become rich!' yelled David and Jimmy excitedly.
